HELLA MARINE'S LATEST CATALOG IS NOW AVAILABLE

Including all the newest products, such as the Compact 360 Anchor Lamps and Sea Hawk-R Floodlights, Hella marine's latest catalog features over 700 products in more than 100 full-color pages. Also serving as an educational resource, it showcases information regarding the Hella advantage and LED technology.

This new catalog includes quick reference guides for many of the company's product categories, helping customers easily compare items and find the one that best suits their needs. Detailed technical information and drawings are also given for every product, as well as full-color images and easily identifiable icons representing specific features and benefits.

For a copy of the new catalog, customers can contact their local distributor or view and download it directly from the Hella marine website using <http://www.hellamarine.com/en/catalogues/>.
