SEA-FIRE WELCOMES NEW INTERNATIONAL DISTRIBUTOR, AQUAFAX

Capitalizing on its strong international reputation, Sea-Fire Europe has added U.K.-based Aquafax to its growing list of distributors. The company will carry the full line of Sea-Fire fire detection and suppression equipment.

Headquartered in Luton, Bedfordshire, Aquafax is a leading supplier of marine equipment to recreational and commercial retailers, boatbuilders and mobile technicians throughout the United Kingdom and Ireland. Staff will be trained on Sea-Fire products, with one from each of the company's six branches receiving extensive technical instruction. Aquafax is amending its website and extensive catalogue to include a section dedicated solely to the state-of-the-art fire equipment.

"Sea-Fire is a leading brand that's well-recognized in the marine industry and will complement our safety portfolio very well," said Richard Pardoe, Aquafax product development manager. "It gives our customers a better opportunity to buy a complete range of safety equipment from us."

Aquafax has six strategically located distribution hubs throughout the UK and a fleet of delivery vehicles. Its website is www.aquafax.co.uk.
