TRUE HARBOR LAUNCHES NEW, STREAMLINED WEBSITE

Dedicated to informing its customers, True Harbor recently unveiled its state-of-the-art website, www.trueharbor.net. With a fresh, clean design, the user-friendly site enables visitors to view and learn more about True Harbor's innovative products, including TrueDeck.

A beautiful homepage draws users in and a convenient menu bar provides simple navigation. Stunning photography throughout the site, as well as an extensive photo gallery demonstrate the products' rich appearance and versatility.

The comprehensive website contains links to detailed product descriptions and technical information while a press room displays True Harbor's latest news. Reaching the company is easy with the site's superior Contact Us page. It includes a location, phone number and email for True Harbor and all its representatives around the country.

Headquartered in Birmingham, Michigan, True Harbor manufactures revolutionary TrueDeck engineered deck panels. Providing unmatched beauty, durability and economy, TrueDeck panels save dock and marina owners time and money.
